The months waiting for the anthology were excruciating. Slowly though, through untold hours trawling the internet I started to discover new artists who appeared to be rappers, but with a slight difference. And spoken word; the loose definition of which is performance poetry embellished with another art form such as music, is by no means new.

Self-doubt and self-confidence. HeavenForMe. I would definitely recommend this to young women. I found myself engrossed in the poems and looking closely at the meanings of the pictures.
