Its like there are rules. It really gets awesome when you experiment for yourself about the reality of it or to just discover that it was only a state of mind imagining AP. Greatpost. I was feeling a slight vibe, but didn't think it was strong enough to exit. Remember, some people may not have a spirit guide, and some people have many of them working together or in turns. A lucid dream differs from a normal dream in these main ways: Ability to think rationally, to decide and plan.

Meditation, mindfulness, and visualization all help with establishing this is a simple procedure to distinguish between the waking and dream state. To me, much different then even lucid dreaming.
