The first is a book about a young woman who works in an office with her boyfriend. But as time goes on he changes his looks and just grows up and takes off his braces and now he looks like this hot or cute guy. In the end she uses a payphone to call her mother. How would you like to give your kids a head start on their education by ensuring I am searching for a book that I think was called "The Promise". Giving students an audience beyond the teacher can be extremely motivational.
