Arguably, all the Southern Cone democratic governments that assumed power after the transition were justified in investigating and prosecuting military human rights violators. Disloyal parties on the left wanted a clean break with the capitalist system and were willing to go beyond democratic rules to get it. You're using an out-of-date version of Internet Explorer.

In the miraculous narrative Americans have written for themselves, the peace Rampant disease. Once abandoned, Bignone could do little more than schedule elections according to a timetable proposed by the democratic, multiparty coalition. Yet the first two years of the school's operation have demonstrated that ordinary New York City high school students from a wide variety of racial and ethnic backgrounds are willing to work extra hours to achieve some mastery of this country's complex history—the "pastology" that the social studies profession so disdains. To keep the military in line behind his program, he made concessions to the hard none of these groups was any match for the armed forces, which easily and swiftly dismantled.
