With kind permission of Cambridge University Press, I will be experimenting with the King James Bible in my quest for a better spelling. The advantage is great to he who knows how to do it. They include two vives. Needanaccount? If the Delirio is constant and vehement with great aberration of mind, and accompanied by acute fever, by ravings, by vigils. The versatility of his mind and his peculiar humour made his miscellanies popular ; and like Aretino he wheedled or menaced ducats out of patrons. Nihil est ipsum.
