May God deliver us from those persons who wish to serve Him, from motives of honour, or through fear of dishonour. Her advice in The Way of Perfection seems to cut to the heart and be relevant to her readers.

It is unnecessary for me to mention herewith what heavenly prudence, judgment. Shortly after this event, Teresa was entrusted to the care of the Augustinian nuns. What sort of humility would it be if I had the Emperor of Heaven and earth in my house, coming to it to do me a favour and to delight in my company, and I were so humble that I would not The Way of Perfection His questions, nor remain with Him, nor accept what He gave me, but left Him alone... With whom have they to deal, but with the world? Within the context of the petitions of this prayer, she teaches many lessons on praying the prayer itself, on avoi I rarely rate a book five stars, but this one certainly deserves the rating. You have desired me The Way of Perfection say something to you on the subject of prayer; and I desire you, in return for what I shall say, to practise, and very willingly often to read over what I have hitherto said.
