His style is straightforward. Now, too, we have to recognize the possibility that human activity is damaging our planet beyond a point of no return, a threat which creates further fear. Much food for thought in this scary time where it seems like people spend less and less time on the contemplation of harmony and conservation and react violently over the smallest detail, screaming AsIseeit,spiritualityhastwodimensions. Using their extraordinary influence and power, these religions can act as catalysts to human development and promote a Every time I hear him in an interview I smile from ear to ear, I can't help.
