I loved the saga of the cherry stains she and her cousin try to rinse. It reminded me of Colette's "My Mother's House". I read this book of childhood memories after hearing about the news of Diana Athill. But this was mere 25 last pages of the book. Gentleman Jack. Your browser is currently not set to accept cookies. H Is for Hawk. In a very different way, so is the minutely recalled attitude of the youngsters toward what they described as "biggs" and "littles"-- which led to young Diana's deliberately peeing on the edges of the carpets!
