The positioning of black presidents within this generic landscape suggests an expectation that African American leaders will act as a catalyst for racial reconciliation with the sheer force of their performative presence and without any frank confrontation with the politics of race. Online Available online. Careful attention is also paid to Keys posting Twitter updates on her Apple iPhone, adding yet another layer of pop cultural co-branding to the commercial. Glenn T. Change that couldn't happen: News media's commitment to hegemonic masculinity through collective memory in the Presidential election Robert E. Most intentionally left out the overtly playful or trendy elements of American pop culture signifiers in favor of documentary-like images and highbrow Western-art musical timbres. Glenn T.
