Venus cannot contain herself for charming melodies, like the nightingale which becomes intoxicated with the rose in spring-time. I have gone speechless, but to rid myself of this dry mood, oh Saaqhi, pass the narcissus of the wine. Your selection contains: 0 poems. I'm on a tight deadline. I like this poem, thanks for posting it. When from the moon the arrow of a glance struck the heart of Sagittarius, he took to night-faring in passion for her, like Scorpio.

What life-bestowing! Angels start away from the house where in this form is, s breaks behind the eyes; From poles of skull and toe the windy blood slides like a sea; Nor fenced, nor staked, the gushers of the sky spout to the rod Divining in a smile the oil of tears. Last night, I was lying on the rooftop, thinking of you.
