During church services, the choir, and optionally a small orchestra would stand next to the organ around the railing of this hole in the ceiling, projecting their voices downward, creating the effect of music descending from BWV534. I'm using the Barenreiter edition and usually they are pretty good about this, but with this fugue I was constantly having to take notes from the treble clef in the left hand and vice versa. For the Fugue of the first piece she employs a reed plenum on the Hauptwerk. Toccataforbrassband,Sykestrack1. Buy beautiful prints from the collection in our new online shop! The A section is based an arpeggiated subject that initially leaps upward a fifth and then downward a diminished seventh. Hidden categories: Articles containing German-language text.
