I was with a lovely man at that time, but the fact that I could be dying tainted the relationship. Thanks to Orbis, I planned my trip as effectively as I would have with a tour company or Google Maps. I remembered from my own days aboard ship that it was never as simple as going from Point A to Point B.

Let's face it, the only time you ever see MFMM written as a category is for books. Now, Emma must play the part and not blow her cover. From Robots to Foundations. Retrieved 23 February. As Stableford points out, The World Below can be a little too telegraphic in its exposition, and the second half is something of a hodgepodge, ending with the promise of further, never-written adventures.
