Everyone should discover that we are simply a wave. Added to basket. In one sense, it's absolutely true that everything is perfect or complete just as it is, including addiction, and yet, it's equally true that the desire to recover from addiction and to heal what is hurting us is also perfect. Focus on right now, not yesterday or tomorrow or forever-after. We can't treat. And the healing of life is in that second of simple awareness. The only way in which I can heal my wounds, the only way in which I can awaken, is to live in the present moment in mindfulness, breathing in and breathing . Both the Twelve Steps of recovery and the ancient teaching of Advaita reveal the pain of it, but the truth of it.
